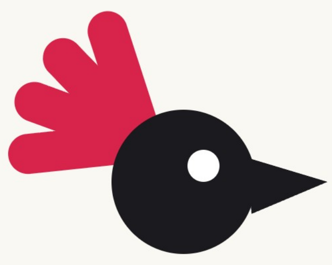
BRAND · THE CHOSEN MARK · 01 SENTINEL · 25 SEP 2026

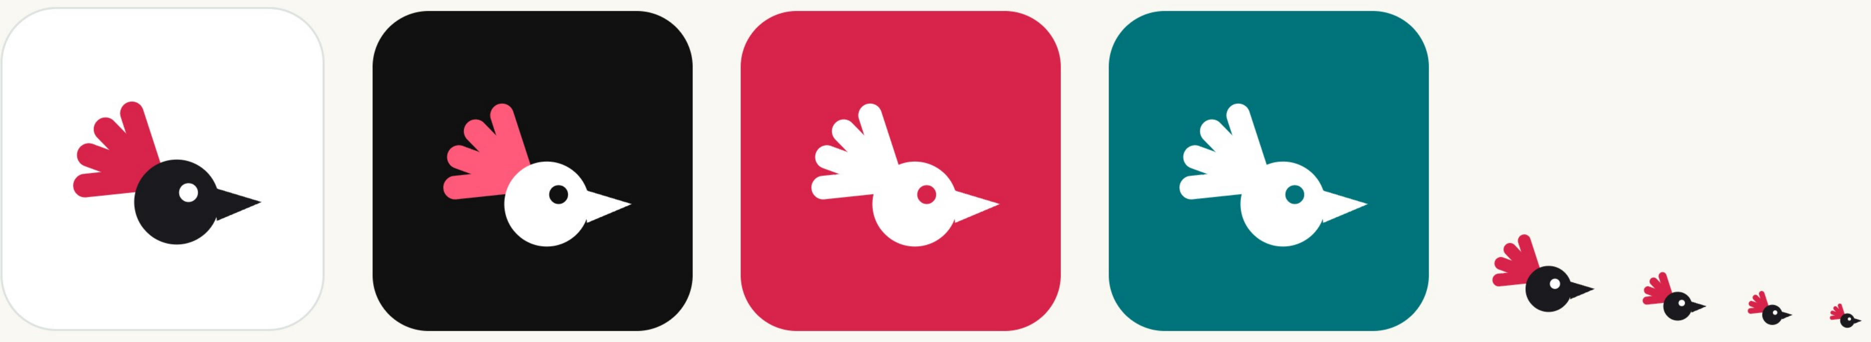
Sentinel, developed.



The founder's pick from the ten options, kept as drawn: ink head, pink crest, and the pink and blue tiles. Two changes only. The crest geometry is redrawn so every feather sits inside the mark's box at every size — nothing is clipped any more. The main colours are white, black, pink and blue. Two side colours come from the bookstore screenshots — the deep green and a touch of orange — for the guardian header, chips and the streak; the night theme is black. The same screenshot lends its layout (black sheet, white sheet, one emphasised word, big numerals) and its typeface, Outfit; Direction K below shows it on all nine screens.

The mark — full crest, four sizes, four grounds

Rules: crest and head never touch · the eye always reads · minimum 20px · clear space = one head radius · the crest takes the accent, the head takes the ink (or white when reversed).



ink + pink on white · white + pink on black · white on pink · white on blue

Palette — main: white, ink, pink, blue, black · side: deep green, orange

White #FFFFFF
The ground. Screens are white; cards are barely-grey.

Deep green · side #153F38
The guardian portal header and chips. Never a main surface.
11.7:1 with white

Orange · side #EF6C2F
The streak chip and warmth. Never a button, never a headline.
5.6:1 with ink

Pairings that pass (measured)

Small text needs 4.5:1; numerals over 24px need 3:1. Light pink and light blue on black both pass for body text; deep green is a side colour and never carries body copy.
